

JUAN J. OCHOA

Juan José Ochoa is a Spanish pianist and composer known for his vibrant music for electronic prepared piano and his sought after soundtracks for films and dance shows. His style builds bridges between the classical tradition, the avant-garde and the electronic dance music, with compositions that present a strong visual and physical aspect as well as deep and emotive sensitivity.

Nominated for best music at the Zurich International Film Music Competition, he collaborates regularly as a pianist and composer for theatre and dance companies such as Pau Aran Company, Dana Raz Dance Company, the English National Ballet, Rambert Dance Company, Inquiquinante Danza and Stream Movements, amongst others.

A PIANO THAT SOUNDS ELECTRONIC AND AVANT-GARDE.

OCHOA&MiRET

Influenced by the Berlin scene, and fusing styles such as experimental minimalism, melodic techno and downtempo, this new duo formed by the electronic music producer MiRET and the experimental composer and pianist Juan J. Ochoa, arrives to expand this universe of sound, soaking it with their Mediterranean roots.
